

	Terms & Conditions -Optional Footage Clips- Acting For Camera Course 6 Weeks Level 2- March 2025 Course Code 425
1	Definitions
1.1	The following terms and conditions are set out to help all parties be aware of and clear about the services provided for footage clips. For the purposes of this agreement Class Act Drama Centre is referred to as the centre and the student member ordering footage clips is referred to as the client. Sound recordings, video recordings, photography and digital files that create footage clips are referred to as material and footage. Footage clips refer to edited material created from course footage that has been obtained during shooting days-filming. Footage clips are not part of the course 'Acting For Camera Course 6 Weeks Level 2- March 2025 Course Code 425' they are an optional additional purchase that will be offered to participants, towards the end of the course and upon completion of shooting days-filming.
2	Optional Course Aspects & Associated Fees Course Code 425
1.2	Throughout the above physical course a short film project will be undertaken using royalty free course scripts and scenes. After completion there is an additional option to purchase clips of the short film project's footage. There is no obligation to purchase footage clips and only if tutors think that the quality and content of footage clips has resulted in a high enough standard to be offered as a purchase option. Footage clips will be available to order 28 days after a preview of the short film project has been released.
2.2	Large scale cinema presentations with invited guests are not currently part of this course, the short film project presentation will be screened online and password protected.
